Information for Victims of Domestic Violence

Despite the arrest of the suspect, his/her release from custody may occur at any time. For information regarding a shelter, call (818) 887-6589. For information regarding other available community services, contact the "Info Hot Line" (818) 956-1100. For information on Legal Aid call (818) 843-0931. The San Fernando Valley Neighborhood Legal Services Clinic provides assistance in obtaining restraining orders, (818) 896-5211 x106.

Domestic violence is criminal conduct. As the victim of domestic violence, you may ask the District Attorney to consider filing a criminal complaint. Additionally, you have the right to file a petition with the Superior Court requesting any of the following orders for relief:

- A. An order restraining the attacker from abusing the victim and other family members.
- B. An order directing the attacker to leave the household.
- C. An order preventing the attacker from entering the residence, school, business or place of employment of the victim.
- D. An order awarding the victim or the other parent custody of or visitation with a minor child or children.
- E. An order restraining the attacker from molesting or interfering with minor children in the custody of the victim.
- F. An order directing the party not granted custody to pay support of minor children if that party has a legal obligation to do so.
- G. An order directing the defendant to make specified debit payments coming due while the order is in effect.
- H. An order directing that either or both parties participate in counseling.

As a victim of domestic violence, you have the right to file a civil suit for losses suffered as a result of abuse or injuries sustained, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, damage to property and other related expenses incurred by the victim or any agency that shelters the victim.
